

Our Price List

Professional Services £960

We'll meet with you and your family, at our premises, where you will receive personal attention from our professionally trained team to discuss, plan and arrange the funeral service for your loved one. We will provide advice on registering the death and liaise with HM Coroner (Procurator Fiscal in Scotland), as required; assistance with the completion of necessary statutory documentation; collection and delivery of documents to the relevant authorities; and making all necessary arrangements for the funeral service. We'll organise the crematorium, cemetery or church and reception venues as appropriate, as well as liaising with your chosen minister or celebrant. Our Funeral Director and branch team are available to provide help and guidance to personalise the funeral arrangements for your family, friends and any third parties associated with delivering the funeral service, before and after the day of the funeral.

Professional care of the deceased and bringing them into our care £555

We are committed to providing the highest standard of professional care of the deceased at all times. When bringing your loved one into our care, we provide our professional, trained team and the provision of a private ambulance or other suitable vehicle, complete with all the necessary equipment and supplies, to bring the deceased into our care (within 50 miles). Our team will tend to the preparation and professional care of the deceased, including dressing them in a suitable white gown. You will also have use of a private restroom for visiting your loved one, if required.
